

Prayer of Saying Yes to God the Father

My good and loving Father,

Please allow me the privilege of saying my “Yes” to You ... I say “Yes” to You Father in all things. Not a conditional YES that means doing only those things that are comfortable or easy.

Not a conditional Yes that means doing only those things that benefit me. No! I give You my Yes in all things, Father. Because I know You are pure love and as pure love You can transform all things. Doing Your will can never hurt me. Doing Your will can never harm another. Doing Your will can never separate me from You. Doing Your will can only spread Your light and love. Doing Your will can only help bring others to You. When I step inside Your will, I am experiencing the Divine order and peace that only comes from Your Divine Will. When I step outside or reject Your will, I am stumbling alone in the chaos, disorder and discord of darkness. Let me listen to Your gentle loving voice beckoning me, inviting me into Your Divine Will. I am all Yours Lord, do with me what You will. Because I know Your will is love. Even when Your will may seem painful or unfair, I know that Your ways are not always man’s ways. Only You can see the grand scheme of things. Only You know the “why’s” of my crosses. But despite what may sometimes appear to be unjust, I trust in You totally. Why? Because You are my Father and You love me. You want only what is good for me. You want me to come home to You. There is nothing in heaven or on earth that I want more. So I say YES Father! I say YES to You. I say YES to fulfilling joys and to the challenging crosses of Your Divine Will with all that I am and all that I am called to be in and with You. I say YES Lord ... For that person You are calling ... Is ME!

Amen!
